3 Due to frequency and sheer volume of messaging I decided it's time to block you. I'm frustrated and 4 confused by your rapid escalation of intended affection. I was concerned that i had somehow given you 5 the wrong impression but I'm fairly certain I did not. Facebook is all about sharing, what you're doing, 6 where you are, who you're with, how you feel and of course what you're eating. I am not one to share
7 a lot. You on the other hand are. That's fine. However I'm not very interested in viewing links people 8 post. Not interested in listening to their music. Not interested in hearing how great their lives are or 9 who they hate today. Not interested in what room of which house you and Matt had sex in. Not 10 interested in much of anything right now that doesn't pertain to my children and bettering their lives.
11 This ongoing one-sided relationship has become such a distraction to me and I can't allow it to 12 continue. This has certainly been an eye opening experience. I wish you the best. I will not shun you or 13 avoid you in any way and we can continue to interact on a friendly and professional level. Sorry I 14 allowed it to get to this before addressing it.

17 I had my daughter and son in law, Jen and Scott, take a look at my shed while they were in Erie last 18 evening. It doesn't really need replaced. it just needs the OSB floor replaced. The wood frame 19 foundation is treated wood and isn't rotten. I hadn't actually looked at it and thought the whole 20 foundation was rotten. They plan to come up some weekend when it's a bit warmer and fix it for 21 probably around $100, maybe a bit more. The cost of the OSB and whatever hardware is needed I'm 22 sure Fred will come running over to help as soon as he hears a power tool being fired up and my other 23 son in law next door will help too if he's needed. Sean doesn't get into that stuff quite as much as Fred.
24 I basically use the shed to store the lawnmower since I don't have a garage.

26 If somebody asks me what I did today, the kids surprised me for my birthday. I joined AARP. I'm about 27 to make sure that I have all my paperwork together got running to the bank and the attorney tomorrow.
28 I've decided to keep Matt's phone number just in case.

29 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 1:26pm EST

30 Sadly, as hard as we tried, Matt and I just couldn't hold a conversation about anything that didn't 31 involve sexual innuendoes. We really really did try to hold a normal conversation and just couldn't do 32 it. That was the reason I cried in his dining room that day and he comforted me. We both knew that 33 there has to be communication about something other than sex. I had to chuckle when I saw Matt's 34 updated plenty of fish profile. The whole thing is one big sexual innuendo. I don't plan to contact him, 35 but if accidentally do contact him I'm sure the sext messages will be funny as hell. ☺

- 16 I've been taking myself to the toilet to remain continent today, and trying not to touch myself while I'm in there. I still have Matt's number in my phone and was reading through pages and pages of text messages from almost a year ago. Here's some excerpts from when Matt and I were going our separate ways last year. It was a fun fling while it lasted. No regrets.

- 25 His POF profile pic is from the IT conference that he went to in Las Vegas. I think it was called EMC or something like that. I clearly remember that Matt stayed drunk and horny the entire time he was in Las Vegas at the IT conference.

- 29 Last Spring I mean. I don't know if it was there last Fall or not.

1 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 10:16am EST
2 Here's the bedroom where Matt and I made love for a long time. It seemed like hours, but probably 3 wasn't. Only difference was I notice that there's a sign above the bed now that says "Together or not at 4 all." That wasn't there last Fall.

7 Now that I think about it, the livingroom was also the last place that Matt and I had sex.
8 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 10:14am EST
9 Here's the livingroom where Matt and I first had sex after going out to eat at Joe Roots. I brought my 10 nursing uniform with me and then went on my way to work. Not sure if you were still working night 11 shift then or not.

17 We also ate pizza in the diningroom in broad daylight, after he got back from a conference in Las Vegas 18 and couldn't wait to see me after we texted non stop during the conference.
19 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 10:11am EST
20 I'm so curious about Matt now, but I've decided not to contact him no matter what. I notice he put his 21 house up for sale last Fall. There's pictures on the internet. The first one is the diningroom where Matt 22 and I drank rum, listened to music, and where I cried and he comforted me.

25 My internet research didn't require anything more than just your city and your name that you provided.
26 It took about ten minutes, and could have taken less time if I hadn't gone out to the kitchen for a second 27 cup of coffee.
28 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:33am EST
29 I don't know exactly how old your daughter is or when her birthday is, but based on this picture I know 30 that in May she will be 16 years old, and is probably still a cute blond.

2 When I had my online dating profiles, I did feel like a piece of meat on display at the butchers and did 3 have some perverts interested, but I did not post my name and email address or pictures of my kids or 4 grandkids.

5 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:20am EST

6 If it's any consolation, It's real obvious from the street that I'm a single woman living alone, but Fred 7 makes it not look quite as obvious except for the fact that I always only have one car in the driveway. I 8 also have 29 registered sex offenders living within a one mile radius of my home, also mostly Tier 3 9 offenders for things such as rape and involuntary deviate sexual intercourse. So far, there's only been 10 one trespasser that we are aware of, and I don't know if he was a registered sex offender or not. Before 11 I had a chance to find out, my daughter confronted him with a shovel and told him to get the hell off 12 my property.

13 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:15am EST

14 My advice to you as your friend Barry is this: "Don't be a Matt." I would hate to have to kick your ass 15 or notify your ex wife that you're online dating habits are endangering her and your children.

16 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:14am EST

17 I'm not a sex offender, I'm a mother.

18 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:13am EST

19 Without even being facebook friends with Barry Blasic, I know that he has a pretty cute looking son 20 named Gavin and a blond daughter named Ivy. I can't tell who is living in the marital home at [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED], whether it's Barry Blasic or his ex wife Jennifer Gervasi Blasic, who is a real cute 22 blond that might like a new boyfriend if I was a sex offender.

23 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:10am EST

24 I passed out drunk last night and woke up refreshed this morning, but just wanted to mention to you 25 that there are 31 registered sex offenders within a one mile radius of [REDACTED].
26 Most are for rape and involuntary deviate sexual intercourse.

27 Nancy LewenSunday, February 28, 2016 at 8:09am EST

28 Nancy LewenSaturday, February 27, 2016 at 9:59pm EST

29 I admit that I'm partially half drunk right now because I'm so overtired that I can't sleep and I'm trying 30 to knock myself out so I can wake up refreshed tomorrow. But I'm quite serious when I say that I came 31 to the decision last June that I don't plan to have sex with any more men unless I plan to make love to 32 that person for the rest of my life. I've never had casual sex until last year, and didn't even realize at the 33 time that that's what it was. It really made me do a lot of soul searching. When I was watching Bible

1 videos, (I know I'm weird,) I ran across this youtube video that's a wedding. They wrote their own
2 vows. What these two people say to each other is pretty much what I want for the rest of my life. I'm 3 not a fling type. Just wanted to mention that in case you ever want to go to the Cleveland Museum of 4 Art with me. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NAUJfnlBYvk>

5 Nancy Lewen Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 8:50pm EST

6 Actually, Matt didn't just drink a little bit too much. He drank waaaay too much, and truly reminded me 7 of my alcoholic exhubby2. That's his problem, not mine, but I do credit Matt for introducing me to the 8 dark and stormy drink. I had never had it, and it's yummy in moderation.

10 Nancy Lewen Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 8:37pm EST

11 Every time I hear this song I'll have a fond memory of Matt and the look I can imagine he had on his 12 face two months later when he got a copy in the mail of the letter I sent to his wife on behalf of his 13 daughters, who I never even met. lol <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zvCBSSwgtg4>

14 Nancy Lewen Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 8:33pm EST

15 One thing I did do last year was sternly lecture Matt and almost kicked his ass for telling too much 16 about his teenage daughters to strange women on the internet. Before we even met in person, I knew 17 their names and ages. I could have been a creepy male pedophile in disguise. After we went our 18 separate ways, I waited a little while just to be certain that there wasn't any possibility of getting back 19 together. There wasn't, so then I took the step of writing a letter to his ex wife and mentioning it to her 20 that her ex husband was asking a strange woman, who might have even been a man, if she would be 21 willing to take his daughters bra shopping and stuff like that. I knew when I wrote the letter that it 22 would piss Matt off, but by the same token I do notice that he no longer mentions his kids genders and 23 ages on his online dating profile. I wish him all the luck in the world in finding a wife and stepmother, 24 but didn't have any desire to remain friends with Matt. Too weird.

25 Nancy Lewen Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 8:23pm EST

26 Here's Matt. Matt touches his own penis in his bathroom. Like me, Matt likes to take a shower together 27 before having sex, sort of like a ritual. Biggest nerd I've ever met in my life, Matt drinks a wee bit too 28 much rum. He's a computer engineer. His wife is a teacher who cheated on him and left him after about 29 20 years of marriage. Our fling was what it was. Sometimes people come into our lives for part of the 30 journey. I don't regret it because it was when Matt hit on me that I dumped that Paul guy. Matt and I 31 had a few really good conversations during our brief fling. He grew up in South Africa, is highly 32 intelligent, and perhaps the most sarcastic smart ass I've ever met in my life. We texted non stop, these 33 really really really funny sext messages. We didn't actually even see each other that much in 34 person. And then it was over, and I flew to Rhode Island for the weekend for a hug and some backyard 35 barbecue with my lawful husband. I didn't tell him all the details, just some. His advice was I should 36 ask Matt if he had any friends whose kids were all older than my grandchildren. That whirlwind

1 romance experience ended last May 18th, did give me a lot to think about, and I haven't dated ever 2 since. http://www.pof.com/viewprofile.aspx?profile\_id=93402675

4 I could have hit the sack for the night about two hours ago, but I'm trying to stay awake until 9:00pm so 5 that I'll get a good night's sleep. I saw your new plenty of fish profile pic when I was killing time 6 waiting to go to bed. I got curious and looked to see if Matt was back on POF. He had hidden his 7 profile for a while, but I guess that potential wife/stepmother didn't work out. Matt's the nerd dad that I
8 had the fling with last year, a little too serious a little too fast, not actually the man and four kids that I
9 want to spend the rest of my life with. Thinking back on it, I can't help but chuckle when I think about 10 Matt the nerd dad. He's back on Plenty of Fish. <https://wikigurus.com/Article/Show/4810/Do-men-really-like-to-have-sex-with-fat-woman>

16 I'm not Muslim, but I've studied a little bit about Islam. I left a Bible sitting on the Unit E desk behind 17 the computer. I think it was around page 720 where the Song of Solomon starts, which is a 18 sexual/sensual Biblical love poem very similar to the message of the Taj Mahal that was built by Shah 19 Jahan as the tomb for his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal. Yanni sums it up well in the beginning of this 20 video. "Love is All." <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hBKwtvnfYZA>

25 I don't have my calendar in front of me, but I think March 14th is the day that I plan to file the final 26 divorce forms and submit the divorce decree for the judges signature, which can be signed any time 27 after March 31. It will definitely be finalized prior to closing on my house later in the month, which is 28 good from a legal standpoint. He should be getting back first week in April, and plans to stay in 29 America for eight more years and doesn't plan on marrying any more women.

30 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 1:01pm EST

31 The other good news is that I made it through February 24th the other day without any feelings of 32 sadness on my four year wedding anniversary. I also made it through Valentines Day earlier this month, 33 which was the 8 year anniversary of my first date with Pretam. We hit it off and loved each other as

1 friends almost instantly. To this day, we've never had any heated arguments and not one single episode 2 of violence. Any disagreements we ever had we were able to either resolve quickly or just agree to 3 disagree like adults.

4 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 12:53pm EST

5 The good news is, Carol dropped by yesterday and I've got my signed agreement ready so I can do my 6 running around on Monday. I'm off Saturday and Sunday nights so I should be less brain fogged by 7 Monday.

8 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 12:51pm EST

9 The good news is, I'm really proud of myself for conducting myself appropriately and maintaining 10 professionalism in the work place this morning when you relieved me. Not sure if you noticed that I put 11 the 2 egg salad sandwiches towards the front in the refrigerator. When I saw you, I wanted so badly to 12 hand you a cup of coffee, hug you good morning, kiss you on the neck, whisper "I love you" in your 13 ear, wipe the stain from your scrub pants and offer to strip you to your undies and rub lotion all over 14 every itchy spot on your entire body. I'm proud of me for not succumbing to the temptation. Came 15 home, Slept 3 hours this morning for a total of 9 hours sleep in the past 3 days. Gained back the 7 16 pounds I lost when I took my holiday days. 2 1/2 hrs until I need to be at the bus stop. I turn 50 years 17 old in one week. Woe is me, basically, to be such a haggard out overweight sleep deprived grandma.
18 Atleast there's no homework on Fridays, and atleast one of the parents usually knock off early on 19 Fridays so hopefully I can get a good pre work nap in.

20 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 8:51am EST

21 Obviously, the better solution is to try to find good fits for the nurses. Some people might choose to 22 work on a unit, like Janet chooses to work on unit E, but that doesn't mean she's a good fit no matter 23 how much seniority she has.

24 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 8:42am EST

25 Mr L drinks his meds fine for me from a medicine cup or in applesauce on a spoon. As long as you 26 prepared the medicine and were standing right there, I don't think that it would be inappropriate if a 27 CNA who he is familiar with actually spooned the medicine into his mouth. I'm not sure, I'll check into 28 it. Weighing the pros and cons, for somebody with his history it would be better to be care planned like 29 that than for him to go without his meds with an unfamiliar nurse.

30 Nancy LewenFriday, February 26, 2016 at 5:22am EST

31 You'll be relieving me on Unit E this morning Barry, which I really appreciate. The report does actually 32 involve the mention of a grown man touching his own penis in the bathroom. I will try to keep a 33 straight face when I give you report on this.

34 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 4:43pm EST

1 I feel better having vented about Dawn earlier. It's going to be interesting to sit back and watch how it 2 all plays out. One thing I do know. Mike is able to cook for the kids, but doesn't do dishes. Grrr. The 3 nerve of the guy. Lol. ||

4 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 1:12pm EST

5 Sat Sri Akaal. I privately told Dawn several times last Fall that by the time Pretam discovered he had a 6 brain tumor the size of a grapefruit, he was in the emergency room crashing. He agreed to the surgery, 7 and it was mostly his best friend who agreed to the surgery. In hindsight, he's said numerous times that 8 he's glad to be alive and all, but would have been okay with being in Paradise. <http://youtu.be/ITp-7cal3II>

11 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 1:00pm EST

12 Aside from the free Indian attorney legal advice about how to get power of attorney from a less than 13 competent person, the Indian attorney told me to tell Dawn "Sat Sri Akaal" which means something 14 like God is true and God is the only judge.

15 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 12:57pm EST

16 Here's the most recent bank statement. Meanwhile, she was talking about getting married in the ICU 17 last Fall so that his mother would no longer have control. I'm glad I got my name off that account 18 ASAP. And I'm glad that I researched the law and spoke to an Indian attorney friend of a friend who 19 also gave me about $500 worth of free legal advice for Dawn. His advice for me was that any money I 20 collected on Mike's behalf could actually be paid to a caregiver on his behalf, which is what I did. And 21 he told me to get my name off that account as soon as/if the guy regained consciousness, which I did.

22 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 12:10pm EST

23 Until recently, I did literally receive cat support money in Canadian funds and American funds too.
24 We've decided that if Thea ever seriously does need surgery or something that I can't financially handle, 25 I'll contact her daddy for the money. As a courtesy because she loves her brother, Luke Skywalker so 26 much, he said that if Luke ever needed surgery or anything I couldn't handle he'd help with that since 27 Luke doesn't have a daddy. That's love.

28 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 12:03pm EST

29 I should say "interesting" brain injury symptoms, not odd. He can do online banking, but can't sign a 30 paper and fold it and stick it in an envelope. If he had any desire to live in Erie, which he doesn't, I 31 would have stayed with him until death did we part, with or without erections. In that case, my house 32 would have probably been paid off in five years. Generally speaking, Indians and Southeast Asian 33 people aren't "mortgage" people or bank loan people in general.

34 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 11:58am EST

1 Just used an amortization calculator and figured out that by doing what I said earlier, I can pay my 2 house off in ten years. All by myself. It still doesn't look like I'll need to gift myself with any of 3 exhubby3's Canadian chequing account funds. Speaking of which, when Dawn and I met at Citizen's 4 Bank to put that donation bank account in her name, we couldn't put Mike's name on the account. The 5 statements still come to my house, and his name is still not on the account. I mention this, because 6 while I was at the downtown Citizens Bank branch, I took the opportunity to deposit my Canadian cat 7 support money. Her eyes almost popped out when I calmly pulled out $1000 Canadian. One thing I 8 must say. Exhubby3 and I never actually consummated our relationship. (If you know what I mean.)
9 He's never acted like a little boy though. He's always acted like a man with some odd brain injury 10 symptoms.

11 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 11:48am EST

12 I also can't sleep because I'm trying to decide if "hard on" is one word, (hardon,) two hyphenated 13 words, (hard-on,) or two un hyphenated words, (hard on.) I'm wondering this because as soon as I get 14 my shed, I'm not even going to dare try to handle that project myself even though the reviews on 15 Lowe's website say that women have put it together alone. I will put Fred in charge of my shed project, 16 and I have not doubt that Fred will get an instant hard-on. He gets into that stuff.

17 Nancy LewenWednesday, February 24, 2016 at 11:45am EST

18 Got about two hours sleep, and now I'm wide awake. Don't need to leave for the bus stop for 3 1/2 19 hours. My mind is racing, that's the problem, and it doesn't have anything to do with getting a better 20 deal on a mortgage. It partly has to do with because I was wondering when your divorce will be final so 21 we can go to the Cleveland Museum of Art. I mostly can't sleep though because of something that 22 happened at work. Amy was TWOC. I needed a urine specimen from a combative man with dementia 23 and history of malignant bladder cancer. I couldn't get a voided specimen, so I called Amy to tell her 24 we needed to get an order to straight cath him. She told me we had a standing order to straight cath for 25 C&S's, and I foolishly believed her. Got the urine, handled the combativeness without getting hurt.
26 When she asked if I had gotten the urine, I told her I had and mentioned that I had gone ahead and put 27 the order in Matrix. She told me to delete it. I did D/C it. Chris Pears and the policy on the computer 28 both confirmed that we did actually need an order. I mentioned that in the email I sent to Kathy this am.
29 I felt bad that I wasn't able to help pass trays in the Unit E dining room like I always do, but Chris 30 understood completely. I know that I am going to get sternly disciplined. I know that I will cry. I also 31 know that Ken McMahon will jump at the chance to defend me. :)

33 I was on Unit E. Ray called off so I couldn't talk to him about my shed, but I did do some mortgage 34 shopping. Got pre-approved by Marquette for a 15 year conventional @3%, which will have some PMI 35 for a while since I'm only putting down 14%, but once I've paid another $5000 on the loan the PMI will 36 drop off. Plus, the PMI isn't as much as it was going to be with the FHA loan. My payment including

1 taxes & insurance will be less than $800/month for 15 years. Fixed. It's about $100/month less than 2 what I was offered from Lake Erie Mortgage. ☺ I plan to pay $800/ month, maybe even $1000/month 3 to pay it off sooner than 15 years. ☺☺☺

5 Laying down for my pre work nap. When I see Ray tonight I may get his opinion on this Rubbermaid
6 shed. The wooden foundation on my metal shed is rotting, so the shed is starting to come apart. I think 7 I need to address it this summer. <http://m.lowes.com/pd/Rubbermaid-Roughneck-Gable-Storage-Shed-Common-7-ft-x-7-ft-Actual-Interior-Dimensions-6-7-ft-x-6-9-ft/50125589>

10 Ray isn't any more familiar with Assisted Living Regulations than I was a few weeks ago. I now have 11 the 261 page book saved as a PDF on the desktop of my laptop. Is that weird? When Ray and I secretly 12 hook back up again this week, I plan to show him how staffing is not in compliance on Unit C. We've 13 agreed that these private little meetings are as "friends" not supervisor/worker, (if you know what I 14 mean.). ☺☺

23 Ray sort of jumped up like a man on a mission after our conversation. I told him he had a brilliant mind 24 and I have no doubt that he can tell Kevin what he needs to do to slay Nancy Flanigan.

25 Nancy LewenTuesday, February 23, 2016 at 7:19am EST

26 Ray agreed with me that going up the chain of command, Kevin is his immediate supervisor.
27 Furthermore, Kim Horvath's next step up is Barb Raymond. Nancy Flanigan has no authority to advise 28 Kim Horvath to take urinals away from men on Unit C. And no authority to give any input at all on that 29 unit.

30 Nancy LewenTuesday, February 23, 2016 at 7:07am EST

31 Here's some excerpts from my now defunct gender discrimination complaint against Ray. He was 32 shocked that Kim Horvath told Nick Swantek a few weeks ago that she is not aware that Penny is being

1 pulled from the unit to help on the skilled units. When I showed him the math of how we aren't in 2 compliance, it was a real eye opener for Ray.

8 I have a few minutes to kill before I have to be at the school bus stop. I was just wondering how you 9 feel? I feel like I honestly wouldn't mind feeling how you feel sometime. I didn't feel that way last 10 night with Ray when he was mind blown and defending himself against my allegations and I was 11 giggling in the middle of the night with no witnesses. I felt devious, no doubt, but really didn't feel like 12 feeling Ray to see how he felt. Please put some sort of public service announcement on your facebook 13 page ASAP so I can know how you feel today. Every time I throw away an egg salad sandwich in the 14 middle of the night I think of you, just so you know. My egg salad is actually better than PSSH egg 15 salad.

20 Ray couldn't believe that I actually typed up a four page gender discrimination and harassment 21 complaint against him and Kevin. We cuddled for almost an hour on Unit E. I forgave him. We're 22 friends again, and he's going to take my typing and edit it to make himself into the hero instead of the 23 bad guy. The plan is to ultimately help the other shifts. We're both off tonight. He's going to come up 24 with what I need to tell him in an email, which he will then take up the chain of command to Kevin. It's 25 worth a shot.

27 Ray's here, not Carolyn. They switched. I got a further report from Dawn about Mike. It's just as I 28 suspected. He's like a little boy. I kind of thought that from the look on his face in her profile picture. I 29 don't see a wedding to Mike in Dawn's future unless the marriage can be consummated. Sucks to be 30 Dawn. I told her I sure hope it's temporary. I have a feeling that by the time you're really ready for a 31 relationship Dawn might not be with Mike anymore. Poor Mike, sitting at home wondering who Dawn 32 is cheating on him with. I would have chosen hospice. In hindsight, Dawn wonders if she made the 33 right decisions. Just thought you might want to know to be careful about what you say on facebook.

1 Nancy LewenSunday, February 21, 2016 at 9:48pm EST

2 I've got a five page typewritten gender discrimination complaint against Ray and Kevin. I still need to 3 work on it tonight on Unit E, then I'll turn it into my supervisor in the morning. I'm asking as a courtesy
4 that it be addressed through the chain of command in 7 days or I will assume that his and his behavior 5 is condoned and I will file a complaint with EEOC for gender discrimination and harassment.

16 I was stalking you this morning for about ten seconds on my way out the door. OMG Barry that was 17 long enough you sexy thing you. Honest to God, from the first time I ever saw you sick, I have always 18 thought that you have the most sexiest sick voice I have ever heard in my entire life. If you were my 19 sweetheart, I would have immediately had that pressure cooker whipped out and some deliciously 20 healing homemade chicken noodle soup right in your mouth faster than your runny nose could have ran 21 away and hid from me. During the impressively speedy cooking time, I would have carried you to bed, 22 stripped you to your undies, slathered your entire body with Vicks Vapo Rub and smashed your face 23 into my matronly bosom to feel your head to test for fever. Resistance on your part would have been 24 futile. If you even opened up your mouth to protest, I would have thrown a cough drop in from my own 25 personal stash of Halls. You're not my sweetheart though. And besides, I'm working on Unit E this 26 weekend, have no social life at home, and have some typing work to do. Sucks to be you Barry. Hope 27 you feel better. Seriously. Stay hydrated.

28 Nancy LewenSaturday, February 20, 2016 at 9:38pm EST

29 Getting ready for work, I was just thinking about the conversation I had with Dawn this morning. Just 30 as a suggestion, when you talk to Dawn on Facebook you might want to make sure to include Mike in 31 your comments. His stress/anxiety level is through the roof and he is accusing her of cheating on him.
32 I'm not sure if she would mention that to you or not. She did mention it to me and Laurie this morning.
33 She thinks it's Chemo brain. I also can't help but wonder if he suffered hypoxic brain damage.
34 Whatever the case may be, you might just want to make sure to include Mike in any comments you

1 make to Dawn on Facebook. I personally don't think she is cheating on him, but I don't think she was 2 expecting for him to be a completely different person than the man she knew and loved before the 3 tragedy.

1 because she doesn't believe in people receiving handouts. I've never mentioned it to anybody, but I

14 Came home and slept 3 hours this morning. Hopefully I'll get a 2 hour nap this evening. I made Dawn 15 Zappas map at me this morning when I told Tom Fabrizio that I agree with alot of his political views.
16 "Partisan" noun par-ti-sən \pär-tē-zən, -sən, -ləzən, chiefly British \pär-tl-əzən\ 1. a firm adherent to a 17 party, faction, cause, or person; especially : one exhibiting blind, prejudiced, and unreasoning 18 allegiance (Merriam Webster) Had a short phone conversation with exhubby3 in Asia. I sometimes 19 wish that I could vacation out of the country for the entire year building up to the Presidential election.
20 I don't think there is any other first world country on the planet that is as partisan as the United States.
21 It's embarrassing how our country fights over politics. It hinders back to the age old "divide and 22 conquer" battle tactic. United we stand; divided we fall.

26 I was back to work after 9 days, and could have probably returned sooner. I put down a new kitchen 27 floor while I was off. Spent one night in the hospital. Hubby forgot to pick me up the next morning 28 because he had stayed up all night playing video games and was passed out drunk. I had to call my 29 daughter at college in Edinboro to drive down to Grove City to take me home. He quit his job without 30 notice (again) the next week. I had planned to take off two weeks, but went ahead and went back to 14 The real estate attorney votes Republican, but has political views that are eerily similar to mine. He 15 complimented me on the original rent to own contract and will have the purchase agreement ready for 17 filing. She pulled up the case, and sure enough, Exhubby3 acknowledged being served. He apparently 18 isn't contesting the divorce or the name change or anything else. It's eerily drama free. I was thinking

1 I so missed my hubby#3 today. I called the attorney that I was referred to out on West Grandview, who 2 absolutely treated me like a stupid vulnerable single female and insisted that there was going to be 3 arguments between the sellers and me. His precise words were, "trust me. Things WILL come to blows 4 on something. It ALWAYS does." I've known Dave and Carol (sellers) for ten years as my daughter's 5 friendly neighbors, and have had a good working relationship with them for the past two years in our 6 rent to own contract. Long story short, if you're ever in the market for a good ethical real estate attorney 7 and title agency, go to Dennis Sterrett at Sunrise Closing Services on West 6th St. He said it is odd/even 8 parking, but parking is free, He's "grandfatherly" and seemed to think that Dave and Carol and I can do
9 this thing without any fights. I have an appt with him tomorrow at 10:00am, and plan to kill two birds 10 with one stone by dropping off a form at the courthouse in the next step of my divorce process.

18 would have told you that I hope you have a good day and aren't too brain dead on day #3 of 13 hr 19 shifts. And I would have mentioned that if this real estate attorney on West Grandview Blvd doesn't 20 have time for my business this morning, I may try calling the one down on State Street instead. I'd 21 rather use the one on West Grandview Blvd for the sake of easier to park in their parking lot than on

2 Talked on the phone & Internet with the lady mortgage broker yesterday. Now as an career professional

4 drop off the stack of paperwork and truly get the ball rolling. Soon, this front door and this driveway

7 I told my daughter yesterday and she forgot to tell him. She just walked right out, got into the mini van

14 Happy Valentine's Day to you all! On this special day, remember that the most important relationship 15 you have is with yourself & God! As usual, my cats and I woke up to our lonely, boring, quiet house 16 this morning. The good and most exciting news in my life is that I've lost six pounds in the past week, 17 and my blood sugar was within normal limits this morning, (normal, not just well controlled 18 prediabetic.) The bad news is...the silence around here is deafening. I was waiting for my credit card 19 statement to be posted on Friday. I plan to spend some time today printing out the last few things that I 20 need to print out to apply for my mortgage this week. Still haven't decided between a fixed rate or 21 ARM. As a total boredom buster, I'll be babysitting all day tomorrow, which is what I also did on 22 Thursday and Friday. I might run to the store for Elmers glue to make homemade "flubber," which is 23 sort of like store bought slime except homemade flubber is way stretchier and way cheaper than store 24 bought slime. Oh yeah, I wanted to humbly mention that I would feel really honored if you would 25 please decide to give me the opportunity to love you all in the near future. I would be especially 26 grateful if I woke up next year on Valentine's Day and you were my sweetheart, and I would consider it 27 an immeasurably priceless blessing if I got a Valentine's Day text message from a coworker friend next 28 year other than just Penny King.

15 I had asked last Fall if your son would be interested in earning some spending money by doing 16 yardwork for me. I admit that I had ulterior motives at the time, and was hoping for some backyard 17 barbecue and hand holding with you. Maybe even a hug in the kitchen. I'm pretty sure my neighbor 18 Fred wouldn't have a problem with it if I paid him for what he already does for me for free. At some 19 point, I'm seriously considering taking in a mature responsible college kid as a boarder to help with the 20 loneliness and to kill two birds with one stone. Free rent in exchange for yard work and lifting heavy 21 things around the house for me, and that type of thing. It's amazing how heavy things are as a 50 year 22 old woman compared to how not as heavy they used to be. If I do end up taking in a boarder, the key 23 words being "mature" and "responsible." Ray joked with me about that and said I need to put in a 24 swimming pool so I can hire a pool boy. I'm too cheap for that, lol

26 Let me know if you're still interested in going to the Cleveland Museum of Art. If not, believe it or not 27 I'm tossing around the idea of asking Jeff Bradley if he'd like to go as friends. My daughter doesn't 28 think it would be a good idea and may end up hurting him more than helping him. I've I've driven you 29 away with my expectations, I'm not going to apologize. I know that over the past few years I've became 30 really un-Americanized and overly moral. I do expect a man to buy the whole cow. At my age and 31 stage in life, I just don't have any more free milk to give away. It's "all or nothing," which in today's 32 western society I have a feeling may result in me being a very lonely and very bored old woman one 33 day. lol

1 Nancy LewenFriday, February 12, 2016 at 7:05am EST

2 I really would have liked to have gone to see the Deadpool movie with you last night. I assume you 3 went with your kids. I hope that you maybe even took some normal and fun woman along, for a casual 4 night out with no expectations attached. I was in bed by 7pm again last night, lonely and bored as 5 usual...not depressed. I was cold actually, and too cheap to turn up the thermostat.

7 When trying to pick up strange men on the online dating sites, the thing that I've had a problem with is 8 I don't mind going out to a restaurant...every once in a while. I was so bored last night that I was in bed 9 by 7:30pm. Not depressed, just bored and lonely. If you're still interested, I'm looking forward to going 10 to the Cleveland Museum of Art. Soon.

19 I'm chuckling this morning and I have to mention that that Paul guy would be sooo suspicious today.
20 Question: What kind of a soon to be ex husband, on the day before an extended trip oversees, sends his 21 soon to be ex wife pictures of his bank account numbers in a text message and makes sure she knows 22 that her name is still on 2 out of 3 of his bank accounts "just in case?" For no reason, exhubby 23 deposited $3000 into my bank account last week to help with closing costs on my house and yesterday
24 he called and told me that if I run into an unexpected bind he trusts me to access his bank account and 25 only borrow as much as I need, without trying to track him down to ask or tell him. Biggest hardship I 26 might encounter if I do need to borrow money is I would have to make a run for the border to go in 27 person to the Bank of Montreal. My income taxes are done. I plan to apply for my mortgage next week.
28 I'm basically ready, but I'm debating back and forth on who to apply to and whether to get a 15 year 29 fixed rate or an ARM. I hate making decisions like this. There's pros and cons of both. I've had several 30 mortgages in my life, but never an ARM. I'm thinking of going that route. I may feel differently 31 tomorrow and decide to apply for a fixed rate mortgage. The day after that I may go back to the ARM 32 plan. I truly hate making these kind of decisions.

1 My elder abuse report did get delivered this am. So now I'm fighting the primordial urge to feel like I'm 2 about to get in huge trouble for "telling." I plan to spend the day snacking on trail mix and yogurt while 3 working on getting my financial info together for my mortgage and starting to do some house cleaning.
4 I need to get things tidied up for an inspection in the next few weeks. I figure I should put my Xmas 5 decorations away and that type of thing. Not sure when the OAG will come in to investigate. I work the 6 next four nights through the weekend, then off for four nights next week, work next Friday, off next 7 weekend. That should be enough time to clean house.

8 Nancy LewenTuesday, February 2, 2016 at 11:48pm EST

9 Here's my blood sugar at 10:30pm, after feeding my feelings all day long. Today I did not pig out on 10 one single cookie, cake, donut, chocolate candy and not even one spoonful of ice cream. Still feeling a 11 bit stressed, but I know that I did the right thing and I did it as quickly as I could do it upon getting the 12 discrete order from Ray. I plan to wake up tomorrow morning and go to the gym, but before I bounce 13 around in the pool I plan to take advantage of the free 30 minute personal trainer and learn how to use 14 the treadmill or something. I think that I will always have a bit of a dysfunctional stress response in 15 certain situations as a domestic violence survivor. Then I think about Shelly, the beautiful girl I went to 16 high school with whose husband shot her in the head and killed her in her 20's. I might be fat, but 17 atleast I'll be fat and happy when I turn 50 years old on Mar 4th. ▀

18 Nancy LewenTuesday, February 2, 2016 at 12:36pm EST

19 In the past 4 1/2 hrs, I've eaten steak and eggs with potatoes. Almost a whole box of Welch's fruit 20 snacks. 1/2 a bag of Tostitoes with salsa. And an apple with peanut butter. Food is the one comforting 21 love of my life that has always been there for me through thick and thin during times of high anxiety.
22 Especially since I quit smoking and gave up sex for good in 2007 after smoking and having sex for 23 almost 30 years. I'm laughing at Dawn's post about foreign doctors. I'm so tempted right now to call my 24 soon to be ex foreign hubby for some non emotional support. And I would have loved it if he would 25 have cooked me some Malaysian food this morning so I could have just paced back and forth and not 26 had to cook for myself.

28 Sorry I just walked on by without saying hi this morning. It was partially because I have a sinus and 29 sleep deprivation headache from hell, partially because I put my back out pulling [REDACTED] out of the

31 stopped to say hi, as soon as I laid my [REDACTED] on you I might've accidentally stuck my [REDACTED] in your [REDACTED] and then I 32 would've really felt like [REDACTED]. I got exactly 3 hours of sleep yesterday and a one hour nap last evening

10 One important thing I forgot to mention with online dating. If you happen to see a girl who catches 11 your eye, strike up a chat with her and if she seems pleasant enough with a decent job and has been 12 married a few times, start "sexting" and see how it goes. There is no iPhone symbol of a fully erect 13 penis, so use these symbols to represent an erection to indicate that a picture of somebody's menopausal 14 grandmother makes you horny: ll. Or you can try sending the tongue to a total stranger. That might 15 work. ll. This symbol represents ejaculation: ll.

25 Nancy LewenWednesday, January 27, 2016 at 6:02pm EST

26 I personally think that I would look really good relieving Barry (or Dawn) at 7:45pm, but I researched 27 the law the other night. My nursing license is not actually needed at 7:45pm since there's plenty of 28 aides. However, if they're going to try to meet the assisted living staffing number requirements by using 29 aides, those aides should be trained to pass the medications with that many residents needing assistance 30 with their medications. The medication administration course info is available on the DHS website.
31 Trained aides could pass the meds perfectly fine, except for the insulin injections or any other 32 injections other than epinephrine injections. That's the law. If they don't want to train aides in 33 medication administration, then yes, I should be relieving Barry at 7:45pm. Again, I don't think that 34 Kim Horvath is doing her job very well when it comes to care planning, and basically has no f*cking

1 idea what's involved in a 9pm med pass since she's not a nurse.

2 Nancy LewenWednesday, January 27, 2016 at 4:24pm EST

3 I'm sitting here with my phone literally in my hand, with my life on hold, babysitting my grandson and 14 Ok. Regarding my need to properly nurse men, I was being sarcastic this morning. I did receive the 15 phone call that I have been expecting today. (I was told in a letter last week to expect a phone call. I 16 told Slupski about the letter.) Long story short, is it wrong for an inspector to call a nurse "dear" prior 17 to hanging up the phone? Just wondering. And would it be wrong of me to call you "babe" when

18 looking at the schedule for the rest of the week? Just wondering. They plan to come in on dayshift

19 hours this week and they don't expect to find an unlawful staffing shortage. I did name names of where 20 the quality of care problem lies, initials BR and NF. That's inside info from one grandma type to 21 another. Destroy this text. Or don't destroy it so that you can one day pull it out to prove that you saw

26 I don't know when your divorce will be final. Mine will be final the first week of April. I'm mentioning

27 this because I have such a need to nurse a good man and shower a good man with devotion, loving

28 kindness and genuine caring. I honestly would like the opportunity to nurse you the way that you

29 deserve to be nursed. Asap. If it didn't work out, we could just agree to part on friendly terms and could 30 even avoid each other at work. My defendant thinks I'm too young and too loving to be alone for the 31 rest of my life. I know that the other party in your divorce is losing right now, possibly more than she

32 even realizes. That said, I hope you have a good day at work today. It's the end of January. If you'd still 33 like to go to the art museum, start to figure out a good day. I assume that it's best to wait until after your

1 divorce is set in stone FINAL.

10 I was just thinking about [REDACTED] logic vs me logic. [REDACTED] was recently diagnosed with full blown 11 diabetes. His blood sugar one night at work was in the 500's. The doctor put him on glucophage and 12 glipizide. We were talking the other night, I told him I was really glad that he got the diagnosis because 13 atleast he knows that he's diabetic....which is better than going around as an undiagnosed diabetic. My 14 dad didn't know he was diabetic until he had his first heart attack at age 55. Ken laughed at me, and 15 claims that his doctor told him he needs to eat more sugar! He's not eating enough carbs apparently and 16 needs to eat more carbs. I just stood there and laughed with him, not at him. I don't know who his 17 doctor is and whether or not he gets a kickback from the makers of glucophage and glipizide. I'm 18 mentioning this as a person who is controlling pre diabetes without medicine at present, but I know as I 19 approach my 50th birthday I'm going to need to kick it up a notch with the diet and exercise. Less 20 restaurant food. Less alcohol. Get off night shift one day.

21 Nancy LewenMonday, January 25, 2016 at 7:01pm EST

22 I'm not sure if it's normal for a divorce defendant to call the plaintiff "sweetheart." Hubby3 received the 23 papers today and called for instructions on what to do. All I need is the signed receipt from the post 24 office to show that he was served, but I enclosed a pre addressed stamped envelope with a form inside, 25 so that he could acknowledge to court that he received the papers. I thought I made it simple, and 26 almost didn't even enclose the form. I wish now that I hadn't. I swear to God it took 30 minutes on the 27 phone trying to explain how to sign and date a form and stick it in an envelope. It was frustrating for 28 both of us. It's the parietal region of his brain that's damaged. From a clinical perspective it's sort of 29 interesting to see how a person can sit there and still converse fluently in five languages, but can't 30 figure out how to sign a form and stick it in an envelope. I honestly would have taken care of this man 31 and loved him like a wife until the day he dies, but he doesn't want to live in Erie with me because 32 there is no Sikh gurdwara (temple/church.) In some ways it's nice to be loved by the defendant instead 33 of hated like I have been in the past. It's bittersweet though. I think that's what's been good about 34 having a two year separation as a buffer when terminating a good friendship. I don't regret the past 8 35 years, but I'm ready to close the door and not look back. In some ways it's more like being widowed

1 than being divorced. Absolutely no hatred or bitter feelings.

11 I was just thinking about you because I'm about to call my good friend Ken Langford to see if he needs 12 me to come in even earlier than I said I would. Dawn called off today and I was supposed to relieve her

14 can while it's available since I've received all three of my W-2s from last year and can apply for my 15 mortgage any time now as soon as I get my income taxes done. In reality I feel absolutely no

10 In all seriousness, there is a woman named Robin who works as a domestic violence counselor and

11 preys on newly divorced father types who are getting out of long marriages. From what two different

12 men told me, she gets into taking advantage of the vulnerability and "breaking" in the newly divorced

13 men in Erie like a Dominatrix. I guarantee she'll hit on you. Have sex with her and you'll be having sex

14 with most of Erie and western New York. Well educated. Masters degree. Sort of blond with big 15 boobs/big booty. I'm not joking. Be careful.

16 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 19, 2016 at 2:35pm EST

17 I haven't been on the online dating site, but was curious to see whatever happened to the guy who went

18 to Arizona for the holidays. I don't think he ever came back to Erie. Anyway, I saw your profile, which

19 did stab me just a little bit in the heart on a personal level. I did actually almost shed a tear. Good luck

20 with that online dating stuff. Like I said last week, can't blame a girl for trying, and I still love you

21 regardless. I am actually glad to see that you're out there trying to pick up women for nothing serious

22 and not looking for a new mama. I'm sure that you'll be able to get laid with no strings attached, and

23 will most likely find a nice girlfriend or booty call or whatever. As for me, I hereby cancel the first date

24 to the Cleveland Museum of Art, and the proposed second date to Fallingwater. This Spring I plan to 25 concentrate on finalizing my house purchase and finalizing my divorce. In spite of my poor track

26 record I still believe in marriage and in a few months I plan to resume looking for a husband's name to

27 steal and grow old with because it's such a hassle to change surnames. Next time I change surnames is

28 the last time. That said, I plan to cry for about 10 minutes over you and then I need to go to the bus stop

29 to pick up my grandson. I've been hurt worse by bigger assholes, and in the end I'm not the least bit

30 embarrassed. I'm glad to be your facebook friend and will be happy to see you occasionally in passing

31 at work, particularly if I've just gotten screamed at by a supervisor without just cause and that type of 32 thing. Take care. I'll quit throwing myself at you now and will step back over the line that I insisted on 33 trying to cross even when you said that you weren't interested in a relationship.

34 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 19, 2016 at 1:27pm EST

35 If you'd be interested in a second date, I'd like to go to Fallingwater. I don't know if you've ever been

1 there, but it's a famous Frank Lloyd Wright house that's south of Pittsburgh and definitely a summer
 2 time day trip, or ideally a Fall trip to enjoy the leaves changing colors. The house is all cantilevers built 3 over a waterfall and really peaceful and interesting. Angelina Jolie actually took Brad Pitt there as a 4 gift. I haven't been there since I was a kid. I would probably try to hold hands.

7 I may just go ahead and write Nancy E Gill aka Nancy E Lewen, the way that I did two years ago on 8 the separation agreement.

9 Nancy LewenMonday, January 18, 2016 at 3:24pm EST

10 Shovelled myself out once and made it to Walmart for some essentials. I'll probably need to shovel 11 again this evening before I go to work unless my son in law or neighbor does it for me. I was just 12 sitting here reflecting on how much easier it is to get married than it is to get divorced. I'm filing for a 13 3301(d) divorce based on two years separation. I can file any time now, but it can't be finalized until 14 after March 31st. I don't work Wednesday night, so I figured I'd fill out the forms and run to the 15 courthouse to file them on Thursday, then go straight to the post office to serve them prior to Pretam 16 leaving for Malaysia. That's the only signature I need from him, is to show that he was served. When it 17 is finalized, I can just text him, email him or message him on Facebook to let him know. I was going to 18 fill the forms out right now. Sounds good in theory, but technical problems prevail. I can't figure out 19 how to print from my laptop to my printer, so I have to email anything that I want to print to myself, 20 then open it up on my cellphone and print from my cellphone to the printer. I was all ready to print 21 when I discovered that the printer is out of yellow and magenta ink. I have plenty of black ink and two 22 spare black cartridges, but no new magenta and yellow cartridges. I don't actually want to print out in 23 color, but the printer won't let me print out in black since I'm out of magenta and yellow cartridges. I 24 can't figure out how to print out in black here at home, so I'm sort of stuck. I don't know where I work 25 tonight and tomorrow night, but whatever unit it is I have a feeling that I'll be printing out divorce 26 forms at work. (That is if I make it to work and don't put my back out shovelling snow.) I needed my 27 soon to be ex's social security number to put on the one form. Sure enough, within minutes he texted it 28 to me. No drama whatsoever. That's what I love about that man. He's been like a rock for me since 29 2008. 100% genuine friend until the end. I've only discovered one possible glitch. The last time I was 30 divorcing the love of my life, Mark Lewen, he fought with me about my surname, demanding that I
 31 give back the surname I had used for many years. I agreed so that he'd sign the papers. I had researched 32 the law and knew that you don't have to start using a surname ordered in family court proceedings if 33 you don't want to. I continued to use it, purely out of spite since he didn't have any problem giving me 34 the name when we got married. So now in this divorce I'm not sure if I should use the surname "Gill" 35 that was given to me on the marriage certificate or if I should use the surname "Lewen" that I've 36 continued to use out of spite and is the name on my driver's license, nursing license, passport bank 37 accounts and everything else. I may need to leave that part blank until I actually arrive at the

1 courthouse on Thursday and then I'll ask the clerk. <http://www.pacourts.us/learn/representing-yourself/divorce-proceedings>

14 One of my trademarks, is the overuse, of commas, in order to achieve a high quality, run on sentence, there is no greater tool, than the comma.

15

16 Nancy Lewen Saturday, January 16, 2016 at 1:03pm EST

17 How are you feeling? By the way, I heard about the violent behavioral incident on unit E the other night. I was over on C and read your note detailing the incident. I know those two guys well and can only say that I couldn't help but notice a couple grammar errors. You put commas where you should have had periods, which resulted in one big run on sentence. Hope you feel better. Get some rest and drink plenty of fluids.

5 would really love to have that "protected" feeling with some traditional missionary style lovemaking.

6 Oh well. Sucks to be me to live like a nun. Atleast my neighbor Fred or somebody is outside 7 snowblowing.

8 Nancy LewenWednesday, January 13, 2016 at 12:00pm EST

9 There are two separate things that I need to do soon, probably in the next week or so which will be

10 good timing since I haven't gotten my W-2's from home health yet to do my income taxes and apply for 11 my mortgage. First I'll need to do a little bit of research and then I'll get the jobs done.

12 Nancy LewenWednesday, January 13, 2016 at 11:57am EST

13 I also read a group email last night at work from Tom Buchleitner. Most people probably didn't even

2 When the time comes for scheduling the trip to the Cleveland museum of art, if it makes it easier to 3 schedule I wouldn't care if your kids came along. The only thing I can't promise is that I might try to 4 grab their hand while crossing the road. I still sometimes do that with my adult daughters. If they 5 wouldn't be grossed out at the thought of going on dad's first date to the museum, I wouldn't be grossed 6 out either, but I may knock them out of the way and throw myself in front of a speeding car or 7 something dramatic like that. I've acted like a mom since I was 16.

8 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 9:11am EST

9 I should've clarified last night that I "know" that I'm supposed to help you and love you and your kids.
10 Part of being an empath is "knowing" things. I just don't know the steps in between point A and point 11 B. Meanwhile, I was awake most of the night even though I was off work. I'm tossing around the idea 12 of putting in for Jodie Dickey's position when she is no longer able to work. Not sure when that will be, 13 but I "see" it like on a piece of paper in front of my brain. I'm not sure what your soon to be ex wife 14 may think that she sees, but I see your kids with you.

21 in need of a makeover but the plumbing works.

22 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 3:40am EST

2 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 3:10am EST

3 Here's my granddaughter Kyla. I'll never forget the time when she was 7 months old. I had her bigger 4 sister by the hand in the snow when my daughter threw Kyla out the door to me and screamed "helped 5 me mom, call the police" just as the door slammed shut. I jumped about 15 feet in the air, but did make 6 the catch that day. A few months later I was able to drive them all to a women's shelter in the middle of 7 the night. When he couldn't find her and the kids, that particular abuser then thought he'd start 8 following me and try to run me off the road on my way to work. What he didn't realize was that I
9 learned how to drive a stick shift on European roads as a teenager. Not long afterward, my daughter 10 moved in with her current husband and lived happily ever after. That particular abuser fell over dead 11 one day from a drug overdose. However I can help you and your kids is really no sweat off my back, 12 but I don't know right now exactly what circus that you all need.

13 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 2:31am EST

14 I'm starting to fall asleep again. Without knowing exactly what your needs are and what the plan is I 15 can't really say much more except that I love you as a friend with pure unadulterated love and I know 16 what it's like to go through divorce. However I can help you just let me know. I would never ever hurt 17 you or your kids and I don't have much to give except love. What I do have in willing to share. If any 18 teen is a "slob" they can rest assured that my daughter Jen was also and still is.

19 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 2:24am EST

20 If you were my boyfriend, you could visit me and spend the night or just stop by for a few hours of 21 lovin'. First It would take for me to have a serious conversation with my daughter. My only rule is that 22 you kids couldn't come with you on a "visit" unless we knew ahead of time that there wasn't going to 23 be any sex involved. It would be too weird for your teenagers to tag along on dad's booty call. Ew.

24 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 2:17am EST

25 If you don't need to move in as refugees asap, I want you to know that I love you and when I was sleep 26 deprived and giddy the other night in my reddish lipstick It really turned me on that you're still so 27 faithful to your marriage vows. However, I strongly suspect that if I served you some alcohol with a 28 date rape drug in it you could most likely cheat on your wife even though you've been faithful for 29 approximately 20 years or so.

30 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 2:10am EST

31 If your need doesn't involve moving in asap, then I want you to know that I spent a lot of years living in 32 the highly intelligent and educated Indian community. If we started dating you would need to know up 33 front that it would be dating with the intention of hopefully marrying fairly quickly if we determined 34 that we were compatible.

1 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 2:05am EST

2 I'm a legally separated woman with a legally separated brain injured husband who lives 500 miles away
3 and encouraged me to get out there and date. He's not an issue. My daughter is overprotective of me 4 and doesn't want me to jump into any relationships but you mentioned that your daughter is "at risk." If 5 there are any services available to help with that, Kim would know. You may have seen her on tv when 6 she was a health educator at the health dept for ten years. Now she's the VP of Outreach 7 Communication at Early Connections.

8 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:58am EST

9 My rent to own contract doesn't include provisions for five people, but Dave and carol are cool 10 landlords since I pay all the utilities and taxes etc. soon my income tax info will be in order and I can 11 apply for my mortgage.

12 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:55am EST

13 I know you read my earlier message, but didn't respond so I'll just make a stab in the dark. If you need 14 to move in asap as refugees, you can do what you want with the three bedrooms I showed you and I 15 could care less what you do as long as you don't expect any help from me moving furniture up and 16 down stairs.

17 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:50am EST

18 I also have a living room, dining room, kitchen and sunroom on the back. Nothing fancy, but it's home.
19 The high school is McDowell. I don't have a garage.

20 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:47am EST

21 I sleep in a twin size bed in a small bedroom on the first floor. I did have the queen size bed in here 22 until recently. I like to sleep on the first floor because its closest to the bathroom.

23 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:42am EST

24 Here's the queen size bed in the basement. Nothing fancy, but it has potential.

25 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:39am EST

26 The other bedroom upstairs is smaller. It used to be a boys room and the red carpet needs stretched or 27 ripped up and thrown out.

28 Nancy LewenTuesday, January 12, 2016 at 1:37am EST

29 Crashed earlier and woke up now to go pee. I'll elaborate. Here's the full size bed in the guest bedroom 30 upstairs. It's the bigger bedroom of the two. It's where my tiny TV is.

31 Nancy LewenMonday, January 11, 2016 at 9:00pm EST

32 You obviously have a need Barry, FYI- A family of six used to live in my house. There's four

1 bedrooms. You are all certainly welcome, but I don't know what the plan is. Please enlighten me one of 2 these days, ok? Tonight might not be a good night to enlighten me because I didn't get much sleep
3 today. I'm also drinking rum and slightly giddy. So just let me know one of these days what your exact 4 needs are and I'll help you however I can. PS- all joking aside, I love you. Pure unadulterated love from 13 <http://empathcommunity.eliselebeau.com/forum/topics/those-eyes-though> Another trait of empaths is 14 the ability to see the quality of a person's soul. Ray has a good soul. He's probably never admit it if you 15 asked, but we've had some interesting conversations in the middle of the night about spirituality and 16 metaphysics. I have a very hard time looking Ken in the eye.

17 Nancy LewenSunday, January 10, 2016 at 10:16pm EST

23 One of the traits of being an empath is an irresistible attraction to God.

24 Nancy LewenSunday, January 10, 2016 at 6:21pm EST

25 Here's my reading material for the night. It's a book about the structure of the soul, written by St Teresa 27 levitated. She's the one in the statue with the angel.

11 Here's an old Welsh style heavy metal type song about Mary's house in the hollow of the white hazel

15 Nancy LewenFriday, January 8, 2016 at 2:37pm EST

16 I'm mentioning that because I know that your wife is a yoga instructor and therefore probably dabbles

17 with "energy work" without having any idea what she's dabbling with. I was looking at her facebook

21 There's a Welsh town called "Llanfairpwllgwyngyll" that has an even longer name also. It's near where

22 they think Avalon was and is hidden symbolism re "Mary's house, the church of the red cave" which

23 has to do with making love to a woman's heart as the way to know God. I can't explain it very well, but

24 the Sikh faith also has a passage in their Guru Granth Sahib holy book that says that a man can't really

- 11 Here's an old Welsh style heavy metal type song about Mary's house in the hollow of the white hazel

9 I went out once or twice a week with this person for two months and never realized what mattered most 10 to him. I'm just glad I didn't accidentally get the urge to rape him.

11 Nancy LewenThursday, January 7, 2016 at 2:34pm EST

12 Regardless of what the Bible says about Mary Magdalene being a prostitute and Jesus being a lifelong 13 bachelor, historical artifacts and evidence suggest that Jesus Christ was married to a pagan type 14 priestess healer and that he took the blame to allow his pregnant wife to escape to France, at night by 15 boat. I tried to have a conversation last year with that Paul guy. He responded by saying he knew that I 16 didn't want a relationship but wondered if I'd go along with being just a "friend with benefits." I ended 17 it the next day. I'm mentioning it because he did further elaborate this morning.

18 Nancy LewenThursday, January 7, 2016 at 11:07am EST

19 I'm mentioning all this just to clarify that my ex didn't recently drop off money in exchange for sex.
20 That was something that Paul guy didn't believe, unless of course my ex husband was "homosexual."
21 [insert major sarcasm]. The college professor from Lebanon believed me, and quickly decided that 22 driving two hours was probably too far to drive for some woman who didn't need to have sex in a 23 relationship. The engineer with the five year old son also believed me when I sort of accidentally raped 24 him one night last summer.

25 Nancy LewenThursday, January 7, 2016 at 10:49am EST

26 I've been crying a lot lately at work and at home, in the car, probably in the swimming pool at the gym.
27 I try not to cry in front of my grandsons. I've cried more at the end of this marriage than either of the 28 other ones. What's ironic about it is that this relationship and marriage was never even consummated 29 because that's one of the deficits that the brain tumor caused.

- 13 Nancy LewenThursday, January 7, 2016 at 9:13am EST
- 14 Do you know where Wolf Rd is in Erie? I'm asking because this morning a guy that I dated last Spring 15 texted me out of the blue to see if I wanted to go out to dinner because he saw that I was back on the 16 online dating site. When I said no he told me I should put on red lipstick, no bra, and stand on the 17 corner on Wolf Rd where he said I could find the type of guy I'm looking for. Since I'm not from Erie I 18 didn't get what he was talking about and he wouldn't tell me. The comment seemed sort of sarcastic and 19 after that the conversation turned a bit nasty which is a shame since we had parted on friendly terms 20 last Spring, I thought. I told him I could only assume he was talking about some road in Erie where 21 male nurses live or something. I saw on the map that it isn't too far from where I live in Millcreek. Do 22 you have any idea what type of guys live on Wolf Rd? Is it maybe some gated community where rich 23 people live? The reason I didn't want a relationship with that guy was because it soon became clear that 24 he was hostile aggressive towards women and even a bit sissified in my opinion. He also accused me of 25 being secretly married to a probably homosexual. It was a weird conversation, but not necessarily 26 creepy. It's a shame that some people just can't part as friends after going out for approximately two 27 months and never actually having a "relationship." I don't even own red lipstick, but Walmart probably 28 sells it.

12 Nancy LewenSunday, January 3, 2016 at 8:23am EST

13 I know you are artistically inclined Barry. The Cleveland Museum of Art has an Egyptian Art exhibit 14 coming soon and they also have Baroque style religious art. My question is, are you evolved enough to 15 ever want to go do something like this, purely as friends, with a middle aged super nerdy gray haired 16 and wrinkled fat chick? It would obviously be about a 10 hour day trip, in the Spring. I'd prefer that 17 you drove because I'm like that, but I may ask that we take my car since I don't get enough road trips 18 these days to blow out the carbon. I find the hidden messages in Baroque and Reformation era art very 19 interesting. Artists from that very dangerous era in European history were pure genius to so cleverly 20 hide the truth in plain sight. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RKcJvJP9zgY>

21 Nancy LewenFriday, January 1, 2016 at 9:09am EST

22 Sikhs and Hindus, like Pagans, recognize and worship the God and Goddess that is inside each of us.
23 It's a totally different concept from Christianity. Probably a bit much for a text message. Definitely 24 more than one of the guys I dated last year could handle having grown up Catholic in Erie, PA. The 25 college professor who grew up in Lebanon understood the concept. The guy who grew up in South 26 Africa understood the concept. He was the one who had a five year old son and three teenage daughters 27 who he thought I'd make a good stepmother for! HA! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RzPKVFYwcVs>

29 Nancy LewenFriday, January 1, 2016 at 8:56am EST

30 To expound about paganism, believe it or not, when it comes to male/female roles etc. there's a lot of 31 similarities in paganism and Sikhism. Duality and male female energy. Equality of strong intelligent 32 women coupled with strong intelligent supportive men. A male Sikh friend in Canada said there's a 33 saying in Punjabi that translates into something like smart men know how to "ride the dragon" of

1 feminine energy. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0vAybmBEtyE>

2 Nancy LewenFriday, January 1, 2016 at 8:17am EST

3 I should probably clarify that my lawful husband doesn't actually "refuse to divorce me unless 4 something better comes along." That's just what normal guys on online dating sites think. Fact of the 5 matter is, the ball's in my court and he's there for me as long as I need him. And if he happens to die

6 any time soon he's more than happy for me to be his lawful beneficiary since he'll be dead and won't 7 care anyway.

8 Nancy LewenFriday, January 1, 2016 at 8:11am EST

9 "Exound" "emasculated" and "semantics" all in one paragraph. I have no doubt that you will have

10 success on the online dating site. Vocabulary skills like that are what really turn on middle aged nerd

11 chicks. Just saying.

12 Barry BlasicThursday, December 31, 2015 at 10:27pm EST

13 Not sure if I'm a Pagan/Goddess worshipper type or not maybe you should expound on that for me to 14 decide. As far as 'chewed up my manhood' I have always felt it was more of an emasculation process 15 which may just be semantics but, yeah.

21 That saying comes to mind, "best way to get over a woman is to get under another woman." lol.

22 Seriously. I have no doubt that your wife took your manhood, chewed it up and spit it out. Believe me I

23 know, it's hard to break from the familiar and start dating again. I have no doubt that you're a bit of a

24 pagan/goddess worshipper type. Finding your goddess will cure everything much better than a pill or

25 counselling or church or whatever. Go forth in 2016, seek the goddess and that's when you will find 26 your lost manhood. Seriously.

28 I'm quite sure that I probably don't need a pill for depression but was trying to get the doctor to

29 prescribe me some anti-anxiety medication but didn't qualify for an "anxiety attack" diagnosis. I don't

30 think that I'm hung up on my ex at all I'm actually pretty happy to have finally arrived at a place where

31 the two of us FINALLY get to move on. My life has been so stagnant these past few years and I was 32 sick of playing childish games. There was no show of support and almost constant criticism of most

33 everything I did. I mostly got sick of being told that I am "just an LPN" as if what I achieved meant

1 nothing in her eyes. I know that I will be fine in the long run and have no regrets about my situation.
2 Have a happy New year and I will talk with you soon. I may still try to take you up on that offer to go 3 out sometime. I need a new perspective once in awhile!

4 Nancy Lewen Thursday, December 31, 2015 at 8:35pm EST

5 All that said, I truly do wish you happiness in 2016, and I mean it when I suggest that you probably 6 don't need a pill as much as you just need to move on in the female dept.

7 Nancy Lewen Thursday, December 31, 2015 at 8:32pm EST

8 Here's my lawful third husband, who stopped by for a few days to give me some money. These are the 9 broadest shoulders I've ever known in my life, attached to the best friend and perhaps the wisest and 10 most loving man I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. He's now sure at what point he will be moving 11 back home to Malaysia. It all depends on how fast his non operable brain tumor grows. The last time, it 12 grew slowly prior to having it removed when it was still operable. I'm mentioning this because I 13 understand the feeling of sadness even though I'm not going through a third divorce at the moment. My 14 lawful husband won't divorce me unless I find something better.

21 Hey Barry. I have some time to kill before getting ready for work. I was just thinking about what you 22 said the other day about taking anti depressants. As a friend, I personally don't think you're "depressed" 23 so much as "sad" from "going through a divorce." You wouldn't be human if you didn't experience 24 sadness when going through a divorce. Just saying. Happy New Year by the way and if you're looking 25 for an ego boosting pick me up, I'd highly recommend online dating, even if you don't land up going 26 out with anybody, it is sort of fun just to flirt sometimes.. Here's my profile from the free site. No sense 27 in paying. There are some scumbags, but there are some mostly normal people. The three guys who I've 28 dated so far from online dating were mostly normal. That said, if you're ever just feeling lonely and sad 29 and feel like getting out of the house and doing something, look at the schedule and give me a call, ok?
30 The worst thing I might do to you is accidentally try to hold your hand. Honest.

32 Nancy Lewen Sunday, December 27, 2015 at 7:32pm EST

33 I'm mentioning this because I heard that ██████ had a mysterious femur fracture, so it won't surprise me 34 if the health dept visits again soon. If they do happen to come in on a day when you're there, you need

1 to "sing" about insufficient staffing and poor quality of care. If quality of care doesn't seem to be 2 affected, the only requirement is that they have one RN in the building. It is ridiculous, and has been 3 ridiculous for many years. The PA Attorney General's office actually recently sued Golden Living 4 Centers for insufficient staffing. As long as these places can get away with it they do, and nurses are 5 usually so scared of the state investigators and/or retaliation from administration that they "fake" that 6 everything is ok if they get interviewed.

7 Nancy LewenSunday, December 27, 2015 at 7:22pm EST

8 Here's the F tags and legal citations for the very vague Federal nursing home staffing requirements.
9 There are no specific numbers. "Inadequate staffing" is proven by a demonstrated breakdown in quality 10 of care. F-309 42 CFR 483.25, Quality of Care F-353 42 CFR 483.30(a) Sufficient Staff

11 Nancy LewenSaturday, December 26, 2015 at 8:47pm EST

12 Laws need changed.

13 Barry BlasicSaturday, December 26, 2015 at 8:45pm EST

14 Firstly I commend you on your meticulous research. As I feel we all know that whatever criteria used 15 to determine staffing levels is not based in reality.

16 Nancy LewenSaturday, December 26, 2015 at 6:04pm EST

17 I don't want to say this publicly, but I did have an interesting conversation with a private attorney a few 18 weeks ago. Technically, you're wrong about "inadequate staffing" because they do provide 4.0 nursing 19 hours per patient per day, when it is actually only required of them by law to provide 2.7 nursing hrs 20 per patient per day. However, there is actually a provision under Pennsylvania law where they can be 21 forced by the Health Dept. to provide more than minimum staffing if circumstances warrant. § 211.12.
22 Nursing services. (l)The Department may require an increase in the number of nursing personnel from 23 the minimum requirements if specific situations in the facility—including, but not limited to, the 24 physical or mental condition of residents, quality of nursing care administered, the location of 25 residents, the location of the nursing station and location of the facility—indicate the departures as 26 necessary for the welfare, health and safety of the residents.

27 Nancy LewenMonday, December 7, 2015 at 9:02pm EST

28 I got up in arms over the one and only PDC that I got recently when they tried to say "neglect of duty." 29 I agree if they want you gone you're gone. I don't agree that "PDC" is the solution to the citations we 30 got from the state. I suggest a little "TLC." That's what I told Ray. Show a little love...or in least, show 31 a little RESPECT.

32 Barry BlasicMonday, December 7, 2015 at 8:38pm EST

33 I fail to understand why everyone gets so up in arms over a PDC. After all the P stands for 'Pre' 34 disciplinary the cumulative effect is the only real issue. If they want you gone you're gone.

1 Nancy LewenMonday, December 7, 2015 at 8:16pm EST

2 Call me warped, but I actually think it's kind of funny that the health dept was actually in the building

3 last week on an anonymous complaint from an obviously disgruntled employee, when somebody in the 4 building went ahead and called the health dept and made another anonymous complaint about Mr H

5 and his Unna boots. Their response will be "PDC" since pdc is the only three letters in PSSH 6 administrators vocabulary.

14 Ha! Ray actually said something similar. I think he knows I could kick his ass. lol

15 Barry BlasicMonday, December 7, 2015 at 7:47pm EST

16 I can see the headline now. "Prudent Nurse Fights Violence with Violence." Back to decorating.!!

17 Nancy LewenMonday, December 7, 2015 at 7:37pm EST

18 I don't plan on leaving. I also like Ray for the most part. My first marriage was a long time ago. The 19 point I was trying to make to him is you just might not know a person's history or what can of worms

20 you may be opening when you start screaming at somebody unprovoked and calling them belittling

21 names, I told him flat out that if he ever ever ever dares to scream at me and call me names just for

22 being a prudent nurse I will kick his ass. I am capable of fighting violence with violence if I choose to,

23 but as a civilized person I chose not to with Deb. I've heard stories about her temper, but never saw it,

24 and always figured the people must have done something to provoke her. Ray agreed that she has a

25 problem, but I think when it comes down to it he just doesn't want to deal with doing anything to try to 26 put her in her place. Oh well. Back to Christmas decorating.

27 Barry BlasicMonday, December 7, 2015 at 6:45pm EST

28 Love it or hate it. Right now it's what pays the bills. As far as telling Ray he has no balls, good for you.

29 I always liked him (generally speaking) he is a decent person. Not a huge fan of his leadership style so

30 much but he has his moments where he is genuine and shows his true self. PTSD? Sorry to hear that 31 you had to go through something like that. Life is full of adversity and I'm a firm believer in " What 32 doesn't kill you makes you stronger" You should know after as much time in this business that you are

33 better than whatever bullshit someone tries to feed you. If you were to leave it would be their loss. Not

1 that it would matter a hill of beans to them, that place will chew you up and spit you out without a
2 second thought. Glad to hear that you have found a way through this minor trial, emerging on the other 3 side with your sanity and pride intact. Often that is all we can cling to. TTYL8R!

4 Nancy LewenMonday, December 7, 2015 at 2:53pm EST

5 I had a nice heart to heart talk with "Lay" last night and gave him some food for thought. At one time I 6 actually had a diagnosis of PTSD from being married to a bully a few decades ago. I don't associate 7 with violent bullies anymore, so it's not really a problem these days unless somebody in the workplace
8 suddenly flips out, screams at me and calls me "stupid." So I mentioned to Lay last night that my brain 9 sort of shut down the other morning. I told him that I don't plan to file a workplace violence complaint, 10 but next time he just stands there with no balls and watches a bully scream at a person with PTSD, that 11 person may go out to their vehicle and return with a gun and shoot him as well as her. He cringed when 12 I said he had no balls, and hadn't thought about it like that. I have the same fear for generic "male staff" 13 like you and John who get the job of walking out terminated employees for no reason than because 14 you're men. To me that's gender discrimination. Anyway, I thanked Lay for never screaming at me even 15 if he has no balls. He laughed and sincerely thanked me for the food for thought. He didn't realize that I 16 have a history of PTSD and said he never would have known that I cried if I hadn't mentioned it last 17 night. He admitted that he was glad that I cried and didn't go get a weapon from my car and shoot the 18 place up or something. And I'm sure glad that when you walked Addy out she didn't get violent with 19 you. To me that doesn't seem like part of your job description. I don't know what employee called the 20 health dept, but it does seem that shit is rolling down hill right now. They got 14 more deficiencies on 21 top of the G rating from their annual survey. Sobering. I, I brought the research in last night to show to 22 Ray to substantiate what I was trying to communicate to Deb the other day. I didn't need it. After she 23 calmed down she had written the order I asked for. Long term care. Gotta love it.

24 Nancy LewenSaturday, December 5, 2015 at 9:26am EST

25 FYI- It's 9am on a Saturday morning. I'm just out of the shower in my comfy granny gown, half 26 drunk...and seriously glad that I got "Lebbed" this morning instead of "Layed" last night. Deb and I are 27 new best friends. We hugged and talked about the different ways that hormones affect strong women 28 our age. She apologized sincerely, and said that we got 14 more deficiencies so administrators are 29 coming down hard on her to crack down on nurses. I'm not too drunk yet to just suddenly remember to 30 mention to Barry that "Squaring the Circle" is a metaphor for "doing the impossible." It's some sort of 31 geometry problem that mathematicians have worked on since ancient times. Thanks again for being 32 normal. I was really frazzled this morning. I hate crying at work, but what I really hate is the feeling of 33 trying to hold it in and NOT cry at work. that said, I hope you have a very good day and don't get 34 Lebbed or Lenned. I'm sure you'd much rather also get Layed in the great scheme of things. lol

16 Aha. Tape. Didn't think of tape. Or a rubber band maybe. I'll figure it out. I've tackled more 17 complicated gluing projects than this, but I didn't feel like buying a soldering iron and figuring out how 18 to use it.
19 Barry BlasicMonday, October 26, 2015 at 7:49pm EDT
20 Try some tape wrapped around it. Sorta like an 'X'. That may work. Masking tape maybe. Nothing too 21 sticky.
22 Nancy LewenMonday, October 26, 2015 at 7:44pm EDT
23 Yeah, I'll look for it and try it. Need to figure out some way to secure it in place. Maybe even between 24 two heavy books on either end to smash it together. I'll figure something out. Thanks. I figured there 25 must be some sort of glue. I won't tell my grandson about JB weld. He'd have a field day with that 26 stuff. []
27 Barry BlasicMonday, October 26, 2015 at 7:23pm EDT
28 JB weld is probably your best bet I would think. Secure the frame in place then mix and apply the JB.
29 You can use a toothpick or some like object to mix & apply. Let dry overnight.
30 Nancy LewenMonday, October 26, 2015 at 6:43pm EDT
31 I'm going to try getting some of that stuff and trying it first before seeing if you can solder it. I thought

1 they might make some sort of glue for metal but I didn't know what it was called.

2 Nancy LewenMonday, October 26, 2015 at 6:23pm EDT

3 Hey Barry, here's my suncatcher. Did you say that stuff was JB Weld? I found it online. Do you think it

22 Nancy LewenSunday, October 4, 2015 at 9:33pm EDT

23 Just laying here in the dark, talking to my cats and thinking about getting up and getting ready for 24 work. I was thinking about it, and truth be told you're right. As much as my daughter/guardian doesn't

25 think it's a good idea for me to ever be in another relationship for the rest of my life, I'm looking for a

26 relationship because I'm a relationship type of girl. Long story. She's trying to come around to the idea

27 of me dating, but is convinced that all available men my age are probably pedophiles or worse. I always

28 have thought you're really nice and good looking and all that, but you're probably the sensible one to be

29 hesitant to go out for dinner and a movie with me. I'm a romantic retard and would try to cuddle in the 30 movie theater, no doubt. I was just texting with Slupski and have no doubt that with Slupski I have no

31 desire to be anything more than friendly coworkers. I'm thinking I might ask Amy Grayson if she'd like

32 to meet sometime at the Mexican restaurant and I'll just wait for the Martian movie to come out on 33 DVD, which is what I usually do. Movie theaters are so expensive. Anyway, just wanted to confirm

1 that you're wise to be hesitant because I am relationship minded, would be looking for a "date date," 2 and Kris Raun was probably correct when she said it's way too soon for you to start dating. Can't blame 3 a girl for trying lol. Good night.

8 Quaker Steak and Lube is up there by the movie theater too. I wouldn't mind some wings and trying the 9 Jack's Honey Lemonade where you get to keep the bar jar. It's so much better than drinking alone
10 Barry. lol <http://thelube.com/category/menu/bar/>

11 Nancy LewenSaturday, October 3, 2015 at 8:54am EDT

12 At this point, I think the only person talking a "relationship" between you and I is Jeff Bradley. lol. I'm 13 just talking dinner and movie. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, Barry. You have to start 14 somewhere in your new normal. I just happen to be in "regroup" mode and haven't gone out in a few 15 months, by choice. Quit over analysing, and just look at the master schedule and figure out what day 16 and time is good. My suggestion is splitting the fajita combo platter at Torero's Mexican restaurant, 17 having a frozen margarita myself, some sort of beverage of choice for you, and then we go watch the 18 Martian movie. I'm flexible on both where to eat and what movie to see. Usually when I go out on a 19 "date date" I prefer to get picked up and dropped off and have doors held open for me and that type of 20 thing, but if it would make you feel more comfortable we can just call it a "non date" and I can meet 21 you at the restaurant. Heck, I'll even pick up the tab. I don't have any ulterior motives. It's worth it if for 22 no other reason than just to put a smile on the face of a friend in the midst of a sucky situation adapting 23 to a new normal. Going out on a "non date" would be refreshing, to be quite honest. Figure out the 24 when and where and let me know at your convenience.

25 Barry BlasicSaturday, October 3, 2015 at 5:22am EDT

26 Please don't mistake my hesitation to hang out as anything other than what it is, hesitation. This is an 27 entirely new situation for me and I'm uncertain how to act. I'm completely involved in my own issues 28 as you know and don't feel comfortable with the thought of any type of potential relationship at this 29 time. That being said I would like to accept your invitation for some friendly conversation and perhaps 30 a movie. I would be foolish to shy away from new friends and new situations since that's all the future 31 holds for any of us. Now I need to get ready for work.

32 Nancy LewenFriday, October 2, 2015 at 9:42pm EDT

33 It's later. No text from my friend Barry, so I figure if I really want to go sit in a theater with a bunch of 34 strangers watching a movie about life on an alien planet, I better get on that online dating site and look

1 for some man between the ages of 45-55, atleast 5'10", who appears to be intelligent enough to carry a 2 conversation and is not butt ugly...is able to accommodate the schedule of a nightshift worker, but is not 3 a psycho ax murderer. I did manage to pick up a few potentials last winter and spring. Some don't show 4 up looking and acting in person like they appear and represent themselves on the online dating site.
5 Some do. As for holding hands, true story, I went on a first and last date with a real nice Political 6 Science professor who turned out to be way shorter than he stated, way balder, way older, way weird.
7 As we were walking along at Presque Isle enjoying the scenery, I accidentally reached out to hold this 8 short bald highly intelligent stranger's hand out of habit or whatever....then I realized what I did and 9 sort of recoiled. Made for a real awkward moment later on when saying goodbye at my house when I
10 really meant to say "goodbye" and he thought what I really meant to say was "hello." lol No hard 11 feelings if you don't want to go to a movie as friends. As an introvert, I prefer to do things at home 12 anyway, but was just trying my usual online dating pick up line. Need to get ready for work now.

13 Nancy LewenFriday, October 2, 2015 at 9:05am EDT

14 Ok Barry, I saw a movie I'd like to go see. It's "The Martian," with Matt Damon. It's playing right now 15 at Tinseltown. If you'd like to risk the chance that I might try to hold your hand in the movie theater, 16 look at the master schedule and figure out a good time when we're both off. For me that would be 17 Monday, or next weekend, or the following Wednesday. I'm going to bed now and you're working. Text 18 me later if you feel like planning something. [REDACTED]

19 Nancy LewenMonday, September 14, 2015 at 11:48am EDT

20 Fyi- I'm pretty sure I can handle the Fall yard clean up, but I'd like to have something lined up for the

22 commit to any other obligations, regardless of how good the pay is. []

23 Nancy LewenMonday, September 14, 2015 at 10:44am EDT

24 Not to "name drop," but my son in law that lives next door is the director of the downtown ymca and 25 also coaches my grandson's sports, so busy he has a hard time keeping up with his own yard. Likewise, 26 my daughter is the Vice President of Outreach Communication at Early Connections, so I help with her 27 housework in addition to my own, which i don't mind except my yard looks like crap. []
